Notes:

1. Please complete one form per member and submit a copy with your payment.
2. Your cheque/money order should be made payable to: Ontario Professional Ticketing Association. Unfortunately, OPTA does not currently offer a credit card payment option.
3. Your OPTA membership belongs to you as an individual. Should you move to a new organization during the membership term, your membership will move with you.
4. OPTA does not currently offer corporate memberships.
5. Your membership application will be voted for acceptance by the OPTA membership during the regular member meeting following receipt of your application. Once approved, you will be added to the OPTA mailing list to receive notices of upcoming meetings and events. Refunds are provided for applications that are not approved.
6. The membership fee is for the year and OPTA does not pro-rate late applications.

I authorize OPTA to include my name and organization's name in its website membership listing.
